218 Southern Belles, Beaus Present for Rebel Weekend

A record crowd of 218 couples attended the 1955 junior prom on Saturday, May 14, which had for its theme "Southern Enchantment." The junior class was led in its preparations in the fieldhouse for this final dance of the year by co-chairmen Joe Barnett and Joe Houser.

Ralph Marterie and his orchestra provided the music for the dance from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. This was followed by a buffet dinner at 1 o'clock.

Mansion and Patio Scene

The decorations for the prom were supervised by Bob Companik. They represented a southern mansion, which was the table area, and a patio, the actual dancing area.

The first floor decoration at the entrance to the table area was a large, imitation-stone fireplace. Three chandeliers were suspended from the ceiling over the tables.

Achieve Outdoor Atmosphere

Four white columns divided the entranceway to the dance floor. The outdoor atmosphere was achieved through the use of blue light-bulbs high in the air to represent stars, imitation-trees around the dancing area, and a miniature water-fall in one corner of the gym.

Other prom weekend activities included the Revels, a baseball game, and a pre-prom, candlelight dinner in the cafeteria.

Gambling Casino

Franz Jackson and his combo supplied the music for the Revels on Friday, May 13, in Raleigh Hall. This dance lasted from 10 p.m. until 1 a.m.

The freshman class, under the supervision of Tom Ryan, sponsored the Revels and followed the prom theme with their interpretation of a "Gambling Casino."

Student Council, Guidance Director Discuss Program

Mr. Salvatore Pupo, director of student guidance, met with the student council on May 12 to discuss the present guidance program. He asked the council for suggestions on how to improve the program, especially in regard to disciplinary guidance.

It was suggested that there be greater cooperation between the office of guidance and the office of the Dean of Men, and through the Dean's office with the hall prefects and student-prefects. This would provide proper guidance to students with social problems before they violate a rule that would render them liable to suspension.

The council agreed to cooperate with Mr. Pupo and the guidance department in any way it can.

Pat Evard, next year's president of the council, will attend the student government convention in Pittsburgh, Pa., this summer. The council appropriated $120 to Evard to cover his traveling expenses.

A $5 stipend was appropriated for a Mass to be said on May 31 for the safe journey of the student body homeward.

Science Prize Won By James Wright For Genetic Essay

James Wright, a junior from Fowler, Ind., is the winner of the 1955 Hanley Science Award.

Wright's essay, "Radiation and Genes", won the $100 cash prize which will be presented to him during the commencement exercises. This prize is donated annually by Mr. William Hanley, '08, of Indianapolis, Ind.

The second prize of $50 was awarded to Dave Krigbaum, a senior from Marion, Ohio. Krigbaum's essay was entitled "Boy or Girl". This prize was donated by Dr. Frank Benchik, East Chicago, Ind.

The third-place essay, "The Microbiology of Cheese", was submitted by Lawrence Schmit. Fourth-place was merited by George Mach for his essay on the "Chemistry of Foods".

A special committee of the faculty of the division of Natural Sciences determined the winners on Saturday, May 21.

Eschbach Goes Home

Franz Eschbach, of Schleiden, Germany, is returning to his home after spending a year as student at St. Joseph's. Eschbach, who is studying social and economic history, will leave the college on May 31.

Upon leaving St. Joseph's, Eschbach will travel to Niagara Falls, Toronto, and Montreal and then return to Chicago where he will work until about Aug. 10. After visiting relatives in New York, he will travel by boat to his home.

Eschbach plans to continue his studies at Bonn University, Bonn, Germany, the capital of the federal republic of Germany.

Eschbach, in his interview, expressed his deep appreciation to the faculty, students, and everyone connected with the college for making his stay at St. Joseph's a pleasant one.

Parents' Day Planned

The Xavierites will have their Parents' Day on the weekend of June 26. The chief entertainment for the parents will be the three-act play, "Command Decision," presented in the college theatre on Saturday night, June 25.

Eugene Schmidt is in charge of the Parents' Day activities.

Higgins Named ICC Chairman By Club Prexys

Pete Higgins, president of the Monogram Club, was elected chairman of the Inter-Club Committee on May 11. Higgins was elected on the second ballot after the first voting was split among Higgins, Dick Obergfell, Charles Rohan, Bob Companik, and Tom Holmberg.

Presidents of the various clubs attending the meeting were: Obergfell, Commerce Club; Rohan, Glee Club; Companik, Lake County Club; and Holmberg, Chicago Club.

Also present were: Fred Stucker, Biology Club; Kevin Gallagher, Veterans Club; Bob Gasior, Albertus Magnus Club; Jack Schrems, Sanguinist Club; John Baird, Holy Name Society; and Joe Russo, Don Bosco Club. Dick Rezek represented Jack Carlson, president of the Columbian Players.

Jim Hermiller was elected president of the Geology Club following the Inter-Club Committee meeting.

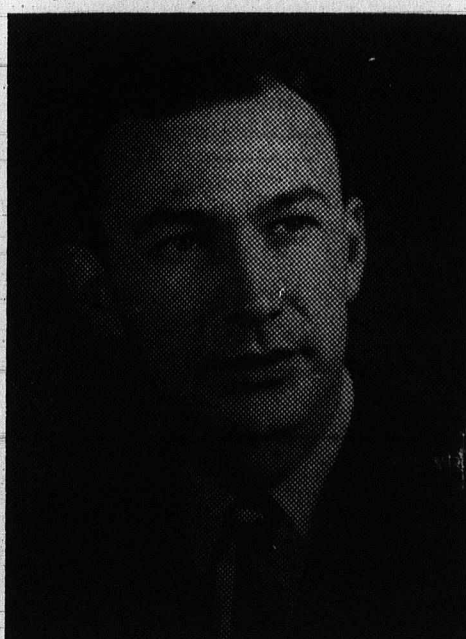

OFF THE HARDWOOD Basketball Coach Resigns After 15 Years at St. Joe

Richard Scharf, who is completing his 15th year as an athletic coach at St. Joseph's College, has asked to be relieved from his position as head basketball coach in order to devote full-time to teaching at St. Joseph's and in continuance of graduate study.

A former athletic star on the St. Joseph's teams during his college career, Mr. Scharf joined the faculty and coaching staff in 1940. He had served as head football and baseball coach before taking over the basketball coaching in 1950.

Mr. Scharf was chosen as Indiana Collegiate Conference Coach of the Year in 1953, when his team was crowned co-champions of the conference.

The resignation has been accepted, but no announcement has been made as to Mr. Scharf's successor.

Mr. Richard Scharf

Station, Stucker Elected In Underclassmen Voting

James Station and Thomas Stucker have been elected presidents of the junior and sophomore classes respectively.

On Wednesday, May 11, this year's sophomore class elected Jim Station, Larry Stark, Ray Goberville, and Bernie Balas to serve as their officers for the coming year.

The first ballot, taken at the noon meal that day, saw approximately 97% of the class elect Station and Balas outright, but a two-way runoff was necessary in the other two departments to determine a winner. The second ballot was taken at the evening meal that same day.

Station Re-Elected

In the race for president, Station won re-election to that office by polling 83 of the 162 votes cast. Station last year was elected as class vice-president and succeeded to his present position last February upon the withdrawal from school of the class president. The other two candidates in that race were Al Salerno, who took 49 votes, and Gibby Parent, who received 30 votes.

Larry Stark, the new veep, won the election in the runoff when he defeated Cliff Robinson 76 votes to 60. On the first ballot it was Stark '0, Robinson 59, and Earl Fortin 37.

Goberville Wins Close Race

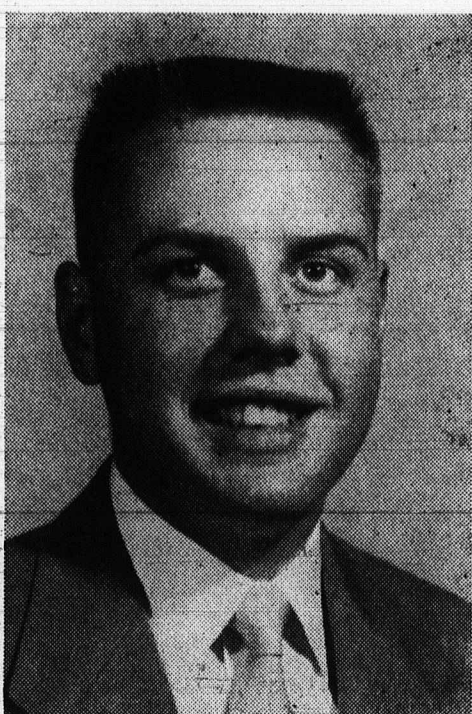

The closest race of the day was that for secretary. In that battle Ray Goberville defeated John White in a runoff 75 votes to 60. On the first time around the votes were as follows: White, 48; Goberville, 45; and Frank O'Reilly, 34. Two other candidates receiving votes were Bob Gasior and Bill Rupp.

Bernie Balas in his race for treasurer piled up more votes than any other man. Balas received 95 of the 160 votes cast. Also in the

"Southern Enchantment" Sparks Full Year

In just eleven short days the final curtain will fall on the 64th year of St. Joseph's college. As the baccalaureate exercises of June 5 draw nearer, it is again time to review a successful school year.

Another new enrollment high, this time 676 students, made it necessary to use three off-campus resident halls. But with the completion of the two new campus resident halls, a much larger enrollment can be handled next year without having to use two of the town halls.

The freshmen initiation, which was much more subdued this year than last, ended early with the sophomore-sponsored Homecoming. Gala decorations and the first Homecoming football victory in six years made this weekend a huge success.

A movie-projection booth was constructed in the auditorium and a campus cinema was initiated under the direction of Mr. Paul Kelly. A concert series featuring classical entertainers was handled by Mr.

Richard Kilmer. A series of vocation talks was also introduced to explain the opportunities of college graduates in the various fields of business.

The Columbian Players opened their year with a three act play, Arsenic and Old Lace. This was followed by a spring production of Harvey.

In early December, the annual retreat, coupled with a Triduum in honor of St. Gaspar, marked the close of the Marian Year. A Christmas concert was also held in the auditorium before the holidays.

Rev. Edward Maziarz succeeded Rev. Walter Pax as dean of the college to begin the second semester. Fr. Pax then accepted a position with DePaul University in Chicago.

In the April elections, Pat Evard was named to succeed Joel Francoeur as president of the student council. A student vote at the same time also decided to disaffiliate the college from the National Federation of Catholic College Students.

The two new resident halls were finally dedicated on April 27, feast of St. Joseph. The following Sunday, a record crowd attended the Parents' Day activities.

"Southern Enchantment" was the theme for this year's prom, the final social function of the year. Another record turn-out witnessed the trumpet work of Ralph Marterie.

In sports, the three major teams did fairly well. Coach Jauron's football crew presented the school with its first winning season in quite a few years. The basketball squad, although it upset many of the favorites, could not seem to get those points when they counted most.

The diamond crew, defending ICC champions, just didn't have that extra punch this year and could not retain the trophy.

The intramural teams, however, scored heavily to walk away with the annual extramural meet at Loras college.

The final exams . . . Well, that's another story.

"ACH, CHOLLIE, VE IST GOING!"

"YAH, CHONNY, VE IST GOING!"

"UND NOW SHTUDENTS, DIE LAST COLUMN OV DER YEAR!"

... IT HAS BEEN GUT YEAR, YAH? ... NEIN? ... OH VELL, VE TRIED!"

It's been said and said again that "time flies." It seems odd that we should be writing our last column, when it was only yesterday that we wrote our first. All in all though, we feel that it has been a good year for everyone in every way. For this year saw a great improvement on the football side of the picture, with even brighter hopes for the future. This year also saw the dedication of two new residence halls, the first step in an extensive building program. On the student angle the most prominent happenings were the great revival of spirit and cheering here on campus. (thanks to a man named Willie Walters), the seeing of the largest crowds in the history of both the Homecoming and Prom and the usual set of elections for the coming year plus a little added vigor over the NF question. We also saw the appointment of a new dean, the offering of two masses in the Fieldhouse and everyone getting used to wearing suits on Sunday. It has been an outstanding year for everyone and everything concerned with St. Joe.

We hope that you've enjoyed reading our column half as much as we enjoyed writing it. We're sorry, of course, if your name didn't appear, but we'll try to get it in next year. We can boast of the fact, though, that almost 40% of you were mentioned at least once during the last two semesters. We're also sorry if we seemed to drag things out a bit at times, but there again we boast of the fact that we never had to include material which didn't have anything to do with this campus.

We now come to that part of a last column which includes the usual thank-you's and good-by's, but we'll just give their names and see if you can figure out the reasons why. Father Hinton, Jim Bruha, Jim Station, Rog Uecker, Bill Schuler, Ron Cole, Jim Archer, Tom Ryan, Urb Thobe, Paul Saner, Joel Francoeur, John Quinn and Jim Zid.

We have one more thing to tell you before getting on to the usual news items. That is, whether you like it or not, you're stuck with us again for next year. Our condolences to the seniors who won't be able to read us next year, but after all men, you must be considerate. There are only 80 of you and over 400 new frosh. Just remember that life is full of these little hardships.

Final Returns

The ninth member of the student council was added two weeks ago when Pete Higgins, president of the Monogram club, was elected Inter-Club committee chairman. Congrats to you, Pete, and to Tom Stucker, John Bian, Joe Panek, Jim Detloff, Jim Station, Larry Stark, Ray Gorberville and Bernie Balas, the officers of next year's sophomore and junior classes, respectively.

Prom Flashbacks

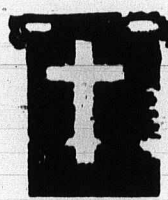

Little can be said to those of you who attended "Southern Enchantment." You know what a great success it was. We can just say thanks once again to all who worked for its success. And to everyone, we say, "Wait till next year, the class of '57 is coming!"

Man of the Year

Almost every organization we know of elects a man of the year. We feel that here on campus the field is narrowed down to one nominee for 1954-55. Our man is the Franklin Flash, Joel Francoeur, also known as the president of the student council. Already listed in "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities," he's recognized around here as the Mayor of Collegeville.

This has been a year of great change in all the parts that go into making St. Joe what it is, spiritually, athletically and academically. Joel has represented the student body ably in each of the functions which have resulted from these. Congratulations to Joel for receiving our and everybody else's thanks and recognition as Collegeville's "Man of the Year."

PADDLINGS . . . the seniors winding up their Comps . . . Schooner night coming up at Kanne's soon for them . . . Willie Kellogg being married in the Chapel on June 25 . . . Sophomores taking the Culture Tests only to find out that they have no culture . . . Bob Wasni nearly pitching a shutout against Chicago U. in his first mound appearance . . . the hair of the catcher from Chicago being the center of attraction . . . some supposed Valpoites paying a visit to the campus with a load of limburger cheese . . . didn't see Auggie at the Prom . . . and so Canoe sails into the sunset at the end of another year . . .

Warm Weather Worship

Leave your text books, but don't leave your bible.

When we go home after the semester examinations, we will be leaving behind more than just a stack of well-worn text books. We are being taught more than how to make a success of ourselves in the world of business. We are being taught a way of life and it is our duty to practice and follow this teaching even though we will be on "vacation."

College is our last opportunity to thoroughly learn our religion and we should not let the summer months interrupt this period of education. Just what does this education we speak of involve?

First of all, we should learn to actually live with God, not just go under the name of Catholic. A feeling of nearness to our religion will help us through difficulties whether they are directly connected with our spiritual lives or merely our material well-being. Our every act should be aimed at making ourselves worthy of God's love.

Secondly, we should receive the sacraments as often as possible and with the reverence they deserve. It is often the case that we regard reception of the sacraments as something expected of us and not an important part of our everyday lives. This latter feeling will come only from frequent association with the sacraments coupled with the will to create a closer union with God.

Many students will read this and wonder whether Stuff has taken the policy of preaching to you. This is not the case. We are simply trying to remind you of your duty to God and yourself. The summer months offer an excellent opportunity to discover whether or not we are capable of practicing our religion on our own.

Leave your school, but don't leave your religion.

Great Improvement Seen In Spring Band Concert

By John Good

"Modern Moods in Music" was the theme of the annual spring band concert given in the college auditorium on Monday, May 23. Rev. Clement Kuhns directed. From the beginning, it was evident why the theme had been chosen. The program concentrated on what was more in the nature of "popular" music than that which is usually considered "band" music.

Working in the category of music chosen for the annual spring event gave the band a decided advantage. From the start, it became evident that the group had improved itself greatly since its last public performance at Christmas. The nature of the music was undoubtedly one of the reasons for this improvement. Taking a more realistic attitude toward the band's talents, Fr. Kuhns had selected pieces of a less difficult nature with more popular appeal.

Unfortunately, there were some passages that still could have used practice, but on the whole, the band has really redeemed itself for its Christmas fiasco that showed the group not well enough prepared. It is too bad that only a small representation of the student body was on hand for this delightful spring entertainment.

race were Ed Cox, who received 44 votes, and Frank Syzmanski, who received 21 votes.

Election chairmen for the day were Jim McGuire, Glenn Murphy, and Dick Flynn.

A second ballot was necessary to decide the winner of the presidency of next year's sophomore class. Tom Stucker finally won the position with a total of 77 votes. Bill Gleason polled 73 votes and Pat Linskey 61 in the run-off.

Six Candidates for Presidency

In the initial election ballot, the voting was spread out among six candidates. They were: Stucker, 64; Gleason, 41; Linskey, 41; Tom Ryan, 34; Urban Thobe, 26; and Bob Christen, 10. Ryan served as president of the class this year.

In the race for the vice-presidency John Bian defeated Jack Schrems by a vote of 165 to 51. Joe Panek polled 112 votes to John Berlier's 102 to win the position of secretary.

James Detloff took the office of treasurer by defeating George Melone 128 to 87.

Alumni Fund Gets Strong Response In Eighth Week

A total of $6,725 toward the future development of St. Joseph's college had been received on May 9, in the 1955 Alumni Fund Appeal. Altogether, 351 alumni have contributed up to this time.

Foundation Director Rev. John Lefko said that contributions are still coming in at a gratifying rate. Class managers are now writing to groups of their friends who, although not always actual classmates, were in college at the same time.

Dollar-wise, the classes of 1927 and 1942 are ahead; each has totalled $510.

Prof. Wins Position

Rev. Lawrence Heiman was elected to the Board of Directors of the National Catholic Music Educators Assoc., which held its annual convention in Louisville, Ky., on May 2-3.

The St. Joseph's music teacher and conductor also holds office as president of the Indiana unit of the association, and as vice-president of the Lafayette Diocese unit.

Indiana Association Position Awarded To College Official

Rev. Raphael H. Gross, president of the St. Joseph's college, is the new president of the Association of Independent and Church Related Colleges of Indiana.

Fr. Gross, who was elected at a meeting held at Anderson college on April 26, succeeds Dr. Russell Humbert, president of DePauw university. He will serve in the office for one year.

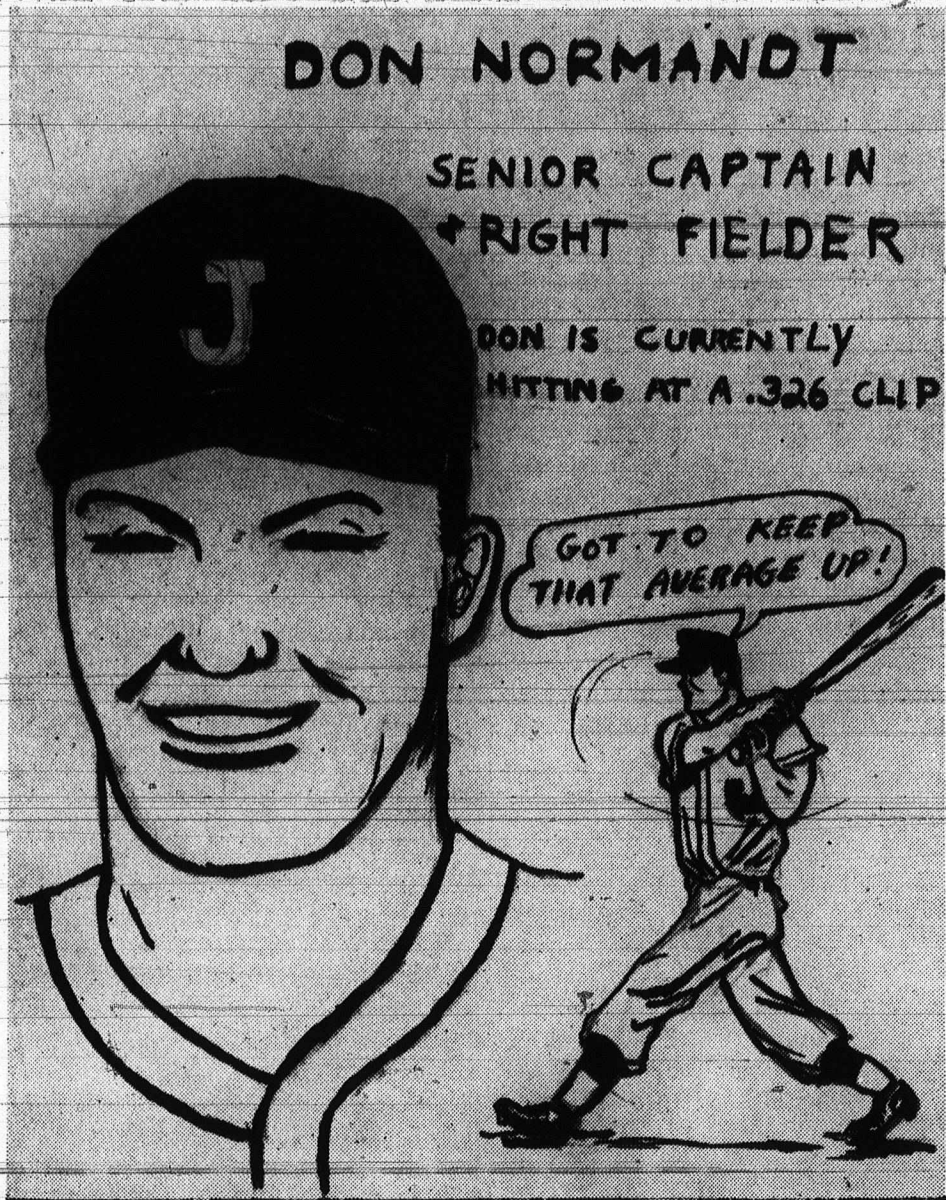

The association includes all colleges of Indiana with the exception of the four state-supported schools. Members meet several times each year to discuss common problems.

Room Furnished For Bro. Henry

One of the residence rooms of Bishop Bennet Hall will be furnished in memory of Brother Henry Olberding, C.P.P.S., through the contribution of a friend of his and of the college.

Kirby Risk, of the Kirby Risk Supply Co., Lafayette, Ind., was the donor.

Mr. Risk sent a letter with his donation which said: "I am sure Brother Henry would have been pleased with the idea of furnishing one of the rooms in the new Bishop Bennet Hall. I am delighted with the idea and particularly pleased that you have chosen Bishop Bennet Hall, as I hold Bishop Bennett in very high esteem, not only as an admirable leader of your church, but as a very generous and public spirited citizen of our community."

PUMATTERS

by Dick Obergfell

For the second straight year coach Jim Beane has compiled the best record of any Puma team. In the past two seasons the baseball team has finished in the number one and two spots in the conference. Last year the St. Joe squad captured the ICC title for the first time in the history of the school. This year the defending champs suffered four defeats at the hands of league foes but managed to come out second only to the 1955 champions, Valparaiso.

The deciding wins for the Pumas were the double victories over Ball State. The 11-10 and 8-2 wins put the Pumas over the .500 mark and shoved them into second place. Although they failed to recapture the crown they won in 1954, the current season proved many things. With only three seniors playing regular St. Joe won almost as many contests this year as last.

Another feature brought out was the ability of the Pumas to come from behind and win ball games. In only one conference game did the Collegeville crew have a comfortable lead. It was in the later innings when the Pumas combined the timely hits to come out on top. The first ICC win was over Evansville. It took a home run by Bob Wasni in the last inning to start a winning rally.

St. Joe was trailing 5-4 in the ninth inning of the DePauw game before an infield single by Wasni and a triple by Bob Hamman tied the score. Jim Gatza then won the game with a sharp single to left field. Indiana State also proved to be a difficult loser. It took an eighth inning triple by Don Merki with two mates aboard to give the Pumas third ICC victory 2-0.

Spots in Sports. Bill Walker of Evansville was voted the most outstanding ICC opponent for the 1954-55 basketball season. Mr. Beane will install baseball as a new addition to the intramural program next year.

Xavier Hall Softball Goes Into 2nd Round

by Gregor Dues

The first round of Xavier Hall's softball season ended with Robert Cromie's team in first place with four wins and no losses. His team has gone on to win their first two games of the second round. The final scores of most of the games were very close and the number of errors high.

After losing three straight, Daniel Keilman's team settled down to win the final game of the first round and the first two of the second.

The Xavierites will end the season this week. If the first place teams of the two rounds are different, they will meet in a play-off game at the end of the season.

St. Joseph's Beats Indiana Central 4-0 For 12 Win of Year

Joe Horney pitched St. Joseph's baseball team to their 12th victory of the season as the Pumas downed Indiana Central 4-0.

The win was the sixth in a row for St. Joe and Horney's third win of the year without a loss. The slender sophomore from Chicago gave the visitors only seven hits, but needed help from Dick Dwinell in the eighth inning when Indiana Central loaded the bases with only one out on two singles and a hit batsman. But Dwinell retired the next two men to preserve the shut-out and gave St. Joe a season record of 12-4.

The Pumas scored a run and three hits in the first inning, and then added three more on three hits and three walks in the sixth inning. Bob Wasni and Jim Gatza each collected two hits for St. Joseph's.

Merki Triples To Give Pumas Edge Over State

St. Joseph's won their third Indiana Collegiate Conference game on an eight inning triple by catcher Don Merki.

Merki's blow came with two runners on base and gave the Pumas a 2-0 victory over Indiana State Teachers college.

Freshman Greg Jancich gave the visitors only five hits in winning his third game of the year as against one defeat.

The two teams battled evenly until the eighth inning when Dick Sadowski, St. Joe second baseman, was hit by a pitched ball. After the next man was retired, Bob Wasni singled and Merki then brought both runners home with his first hit of the game.

Valpo Blasts SJ To Hand Dwinell His Second Defeat

Valparaiso University, bunched five runs in the fourth inning, defeated St. Joseph's 8-1 today in an Indiana Collegiate Conference baseball game at Collegeville.

Sophomore Bob Lohse and senior Doug Seltz hurled for Valparaiso and gave the Pumas only five hits. Lohse pitched the first seven innings and received credit for the win.

Dwinell Has Shaky Start

The visitors began working early on St. Joe starter Dick Dwinell, scoring twice in the second inning and picking up another run in the third.

St. Joe scored in the third but Valpo's big fourth inning drove Dwinell from the game and assured the victory. Greg Jancich finished for the Pumas. It was Dwinell's second loss of the season. He has won two.

Wasni Collects Three for Three
Bob Wasni collected three of St. Joe's five singles and added a base on balls in four attempts.

The loss gave the Pumas a 6-4 record for the season. All four losses and two of the victories have been conference games.

Golf Team Loses

The Puma golfers ended their 1955 season on a losing note as they dropped a 10-8 decision to Glenview Naval Air Station.

Merle Effing led the Pumas with a 77. G. Saich of the Naval Air Station was low man with a 71.

St. Joe Takes Two Tilts From Ball State 11-10, 8-2

St. Joseph's Pumas extended their current winning streak to five games as they took both ends of an Indiana Collegiate Conference doubleheader from Ball State's Cardinals, 11-10 and 8-2.

The Pumas once again waited until the ninth inning to win the first game. Puma starter Dick Dwinell yielded six runs in the first two innings and the Cardinals led 9-4 at the end of six innings. Two-run Puma outbursts in the seventh and eighth cut the Ball State lead to 10-8.

Eifrid Turns Defeat into Victory

In the last of the ninth Bob Wasni and Don Merki led off with singles. After a sacrifice by Bob Schmitz, walks to Jim Gatza and Gene Eifrid brought in one run. The winning runs scored when Eifrid broke up what was apparently a game-ending double play.

Eifrid, who took over the mound chores in the fourth inning, was credited with the win. It was his first pitching performance of the season. Al Greto led the Pumas with three hits, while Dave Martin's five singles topped the Cardinal offense. Wasni, Don Normandt, and Gatza, all had two hits for the Pumas.

Jancich Hurls Three-Hitter

Freshman Greg Jancich hurled a three-hitter in the second game for his fourth win of the year. The Pumas scored four runs in the first inning and added four more in the fourth to complete their scoring. Normandt and Dick Sadowski led the second-game Puma attack with

Track Team Drops Meet to State 72-48

The St. Joseph's Pumas won seven first places but failed to conquer their ICC rivals, Indiana State. The Sycamores compiled 72 points by grabbing as many first places as the visitors and picking up many of the other point places. St. Joe finished with 48 points.

Nick Kitt was the top point-getter for the Pumas as he captured both the mile and two mile runs. Kitt ran the mile in 4:40. Freshman Clarence Batie helped the Puma cause with nine points, finishing first in the high jump, second in the 440, and third in the 880.

Hurdlers Jack Wolf and George Sherwood added 15 points to the St. Joe total. Wolf won the high hurdles and Sherwood was third. Sherwood then took the low hurdles with Wolf finishing second. George also placed third in the shot put.

Other Puma winners were Bill Corville with a 10:3 in the 100 yard dash and Joe Kneip's 23:4 in the 220 yard dash. Jim Corville rounded out the St. Joe scoring for the day with a second in the broad jump and a third in the discuses.

three hits each.

The double win gave the Pumas a 5-4 record in the ICC, and an 11-4 overall record. Ball State's season record now stands at 7-8.

College to Hold Fund Workshop

A "Workshop in Catholic Institutional Fund Raising" will be held at St. Joseph's college from June 6 to 9.

Many Catholic institutions, particularly the small parishes, are in no position to retain professional counsel in fund raising. This workshop will explain in detail all the facets of a campaign.

As a public service to parish priests, sisters, and all Catholic institutional administrators, the college Foundation has obtained the services of several professional fund-raisers. These men will present the various methods of conducting campaigns for different causes.

James A. Farley, who will become an honorary alumnus of St. Joseph's college on June 5, has served as postmaster-general of the United States and chairman of the Democratic National Committee.

He still holds many important public and business positions, including the chairmanship of the Coca Cola Export Corporation. Mr. Farley, who received the Cross of Isabel la Catolica from the Spanish government on May 4, 1955, will also receive an honorary Doctor of Laws degree.

Mission Unit Elects New Officers

by Gregor Does

The Dwenger Mission Unit assembled on Sunday morning, May 15, for its last meeting of the year. Seven new officers were elected by nomination and secret ballot. Francis Dawson was elected president, succeeding Gregor Does who held the position during the past year.

Robert Hansen became the new vice-president, Joseph Hinders the new secretary, and Richard Thiel the treasurer. The minor position of librarian, historian, and program chairman were filled by Frederick Ryder, Richard Elo and Donald Moorman respectively.

The over-all success of the D.M.U. during the past year became apparent in the historian's report delivered by Franklin Monnin at the same meeting. The Redistribution Center sent over 4,000 magazines and pamphlets, and 1790 pounds of clothing and religious articles to the missions. The new vocational work of the St. Gaspar Club showed some success. The other six clubs either bettered or equalled the work of previous years.

A book drive held early in the spring netted more than a thousand books; six hundred of them were sent to a new major seminary in Tokyo, Japan. The open house on May 1 was also sponsored by the Dwenger Mission Unit.

27 Xaxier Students To Enter Novitiate Following Retreat

On August 5, 27 Xavierites will enter the Precious Blood novitiate at Burkettsville, Ohio. The next night they will begin an eight-day retreat followed immediately by the novitiate year. This will be the largest group of novices since the beginning of the novitiate in 1951.

The majority of these 27 seminarians began their studies at Brunnerdale Seminary, Canton, Ohio, in 1949. After graduation in 1953 they entered St. Joseph's College for two years of pre-theology studies.

The novitiate year precedes profession and entrances into St. Charles Major Seminary at Carthage, Ohio.
